

Lent 4: All are included in God's love.

Yes, God so loved the world as to give the Only Begotten One, that whoever believes may not die but have eternal life.

—John 3:16

All people are held within God's love.

No one is excluded all are included.

The church without disabled people is a disabled church.

Think about the ways in which your ideas of God's love are expanded in unexpected ways.
